Sheriff's Sale—next week.

Mr. J. F. Izlar has just returned from the Baltimore Convention.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The price of single copies of the Times, to those who are not subscribers, is only Five Cents.

As will be seen by reference to our advertising column, Mr. Lee Haggard, of Barnwell, and Mr. O. P. Hay, of Summerville, have been associated with the firm of John Colcock & Co., Factors and Commission Merchants, Charleston, S. C. They will be thankful for the patronage of their friends in Orangeburg County, and will guarantee satisfaction.

TOTAL JUROR'S CORNER.—The following was written by our Trial Justice Brown, during the past week:

State vs. Sarah Payne. Not guilty.

State vs. George M. Jenkins and T. M. A. Jenkins. Violation of contract. Not guilty.

State vs. G. L. Rover. Assault and battery. Not guilty.

MONEY OFFICE NOTICE.

OUR citizens will no doubt be pleased to learn that the post office at this place has been made a Money Office. Money can be sent to any part of the country, without danger of loss, at the following rates:

On all amounts not exceeding $10, five cents; over $10 and not exceeding $20, ten cents; over $20 and not exceeding $30, fifteen cents; and so on to $50.

This is quite an accession to our postal facilities, as our people are enabled, at a small rate of commission, to send any amount of money under $50 to any part of the United States.

CRUMBS.—We would ask the attention of our readers to our Baltimore Correspondence, published in another column.

Read the advertisement of Dr. L. C. Stevens, which appears this week. A good chance to invest in desirable real estate.

Rev. Stiles McMillamp conducted divine services at the Episcopal Church, last Sabbath.

We understand there is to be a barbecue, and Radical speechmaking at Rowel's Bridge, on next Saturday.

Capt. A. J. Frederick has been confined to his bed for the past five days. We are pleased to know that he is convalescing.

J. H. Wahlers has just received a large stock of foreign and domestic cigars. We know they are fine, for we have "puffed" them.

An intelligent lad can find steady employment at the art preservative of all arts by applying at this office.

We understand that a tax of three mills has been levied in Cow Castle Township, for school purposes.

Several of the planters in the vicinity of Rowel's Pump are needing rain.

We understand that Dr. J. A. Kelker has withdrawn his name as a candidate for Senator, from this County.

Capt. John S. Bowman and T. H. Zimmerman Esq. gave us the pleasure a short "chat," yesterday.

TOO LATE.—We have received a communication giving a graphic account of the Radical meeting at Lewisville, on Monday of last week; but owing to the lateness of the hour, we are unable to give it room in this issue.

News Items.

The Chesterfield Devoctarians say that rains have been frequent in that county, during the past week.

At the commencement exercises of Due West College, a very impressive and eloquent oration was delivered by Rev. W. E. Capers.

An important railroad meeting is to be held on the first of August at Greenwood, in the interest of the Greenwood and Augusta Road. Distinguished speakers will be present.

Senator Sumner, of Massachusetts, has declared for emancipation.

George T. Stevens, distinguished citizen of Georgia, died suddenly last week.

It is stated upon the authority of Col. Ethan Allen, Chairman of the Liberal Republican National Committee, that Chas. Sumner has consented to deliver half a dozen speeches in favor of Greeley and Brown, in the Southern States.

The Grant hat is something after the Greeley style, except that it is varied with black cape.

The Charleston News says:

"T. J. Mackey, in his Winsboro speech, said that it cost $150,000 in bribes to pass the proposed bone bill through the legislature. Will Judge Mackey oblige the public with the names of the persons who furnished this bribery?" The bribe is just about as bad as the bribe.

The Exponent Report the University, has licensed Dr. R. H. Judah and Mr. Allen Leard, of Chester, S. C. as druggists.

A late Long Branch item informs an abiding public that "Gen. Grant's turn-out, presented to him by Tom Murphy and others, excited considerable attention." His other turn-out to be presented to him next fall by the Liberal Republicans and others, will excite more.

Gerrit Smith declares that the Democratic party is dead. Three million voters ought to make a party lively course. Again, if the Democratic party be dead, what is the use of the Republican papers continually declaring that the present issue is between the Republican and the old Democratic party.

TOTAL JUROR'S CORNER.—The following was written by our Trial Justice Brown, during the past week:

State vs. Sarah Payne. Not guilty.

State vs. George M. Jenkins and T. M. A. Jenkins. Violation of contract. Not guilty.

State vs. G. L. Rover. Assault and battery. Not guilty.
